Paul Klink and Kim Vidal have joined Cassidy Turley BRE Commercial's property management team.

Klink has been named vice president, city leader of property management and will focus on business development. He previously owned and operated Interface Properties, a development company with emphasis on retail and office projects. During his time at Interface, he developed more than 2.2 million square feet of retail and office space.

Kim Vidal joins Cassidy Turley as a senior property manager and will work directly with Klink. Prior to joining the firm, she founded Vidal Consulting and worked on assignments for temporary and long-term vacancies in residential and commercial properties.

Klink and Vidal will both work out of Cassidy Turley's UTC office.

"We are pleased to expand our Southern California services to include property management," said John Frager, president & CEO of Cassidy Turley BRE Commercial, "This gives Cassidy Turley BRE Commercial an opportunity to provide a full menu of services to our clients, beyond our brokerage and capital markets capabilities."
