MEDIA: NCT puts Oceanside office up for sale

Monday, August 10, 2009

OCEANSIDE ---- The North County Times has put its Oceanside building up for sale, but the Times will continue to maintain offices in the city, the newspaper said Monday.

Publisher Peter York said the building is being offered for $8.1 million through Grubb & Ellis/BRE Commercial, a Carlsbad real estate brokerage office.

York said the paper's circulation area would remain the same.

"This by no means is a sign we're abandoning Oceanside and the coast," York said. "This is a very important market to us. But we don't need a facility that large anymore, now that we've consolidated our printing and production in Escondido."

The building is on South Coast Highway.
